PARKING LOT TO BE RENOVATED

AT FORT MASON
CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

The At-Fort-Mason Capital Campaign is a $7.5 million fund-raising effort to complete ten major renovations projects within the historic Piers and Landmark Buildings of Fort Mason Center. To date, over $4 million has been raised.

The entrance, grounds and parking lot at Fort Mason will get a major face-lift in 1988 as a result of a recent appropriation for the project. After many years of lobbying, the administration of the Golden Gate National Recreation Area (GGNRA) has convinced the government to set aside $1.25 million of Federal funds to redesign and renovate the 13-acre Fort Mason Center site.

Brian O'Neill, GGNRA General Superintendent, said, "This news should please just about everyone who has ever been to Fort Mason Center. There will be new pavement, more parking space, better lighting, and a new bus stop with a shelter."

"The past ten years have seen Fort Mason grow and improve, while our grounds and parking lot have only deteriorated," said Marc Kasky, Executive Director of Fort Mason Center. "People who come here really have to have faith that beyond this parking lot is a program of exceptional quality and variety. These planned improvements to the site will better reflect the change and excitement occurring within our buildings."

The parking area between Buildings C and D will be available for outdoor events.

Designed by the architectural firm of Robinson Mills & Williams, the renovations include an increase in legal parking spaces from the current 310 to 450, an official bus stop, and patio areas created adjacent to the Firehouse and the Conference Center.

Safety will be improved through the installation of new outdoor lighting and a new circulation pattern for cars and pedestrians. The entire lot will be repaved, and railroad tracks will no longer protrude from the surface. The main entrance to Fort Mason will also be redesigned, making the entrance and exit more orderly and attractive. The improvements to the grounds will be topped off with flagpoles near the Landmark Buildings, and Fisherman's Walks around the piers. The one-acre space between Landmark Buildings C and D will become a suitable site for outdoor special events.

These amenities aside, the real improvement will be in the additional parking spaces, according to Kasky. "Many people have encouraged these improvements because of the difficulty in finding parking space on busy days. This plan will address ninety percent of the situations where we run out of spaces. We are also working on ways to maximize other parking areas along the Marina Green and Gas House Cove, with the use of shuttle buses."

VARIETY IN PIERS AT FORT MASON

Fort Mason's piers will be the setting for a wide range of events this month, from antiques to zydeco.

Dance Jam Expo will transform Pier 3 into a flashing pavilion of high-energy dance music, spectacular lights, dramatic lasers, and exciting performances, featuring special appearances by recording stars Sa-Fire, Nayobe, and Secret Ties. Additional music will be provided by some of Northern California's best mobile disc jockeys, including Sound Sequence of San Francisco, Spintronix of Daly City, Skyway Sounds of San Jose, Creative Madness of Union City, Rok-A-Long of Vallejo, and High Energy of Fairfield. The eleventh in a series of events sponsored by Imagine! Productions of San Francisco, Dance Jam Expo is a showcase for young mobile disc jockeys from the Bay Area. The show starts at 7pm on Saturday, October 3; singing artists perform beginning at 9pm. Tickets are $12 at the door, $10 in advance. For information, call 673-0669.

Dance Jam Expo will feature recording star Sa-Fire.

The Cajun Zydeco Music-Dance-Food Festival celebrates the Louisiana Cajun and Creole cultures in a family dancehall atmosphere, offering fun for all ages. This participatory event will include music, dancing, a children's Mardi Gras parade, traditional crafts demonstrations and exhibits, and workshops on Cajun dance and music. Developed in southwestern Louisiana by French Acadian settlers, Cajun music includes the diatonic accordion, fiddle and triangle. Zydeco, a term denoting a "snappy" dance, combines Black spirituals, jazz, and rhythm and blues with French music. Both folk music styles focus on getting people to dance—and there will be plenty of dancing at this first annual San Francisco festival. In addition, performers include Grammy award winner Queen Ida and the Bon Temps Zydeco Band, John Delafose and the Eunice Playboys, Michael Doucet and Beausoleil, D. L. Menard and the Louisiana Aces, Blues du Bayou, the Louisiana Cajun Trio, the California Cajun Orchestra, Al Rapone and the Zydeco Express, and Hows Bayou. Traditional Cajun and Creole cuisine will be offered by several restaurants. The menu includes jambalaya, crawfish etoufe, blackened redfish, Louisiana French roasted coffee, and sweet potato and pecan pie. American foods will also be available. The festival will be in Pier 3 on Saturday and Sunday, October 10 and 11, from noon to 10pm. General admission is $15/day, seniors $10/day, children under 12 admitted free. KPFA-FM will be one of the beneficiaries of the event. For information, call 621-0811.

Macy's Fifth Annual Fashion Show will feature the best of men's and women's fashions from European, Japanese and American designers, with live music and special effects, October 14 and 15 in Piers 2 and 3. Each evening begins with wine and hors d'oeuvres at a reception in Pier 2, from 6:30 to 8. The show, Passport to Fashion, starts each evening at 8 in Pier 3. On Wednesday night only, there will be a special guest appearance by Elizabeth Taylor. Reserved seating tickets are available through BASS (762-BASS) or may be purchased in the Lifestyle Department of Macy's San Francisco. Cost per person is $35 on Wednesday, $25 on Thursday.

The San Francisco Fall Antiques Show will present 65 distinguished American and European dealers showing a variety of antiques representing all styles and periods. Included will be American, English, Continental and Oriental antiques and fine art. The San Francisco Fall Antiques Show was established in 1982 as the major fundraising event for Enterprise for High School Students, Inc., a nonprofit job referral and career development agency for San Francisco high school students. This year, the special exhibit at the show will be a tribute to the late Elsie de Wolfe, the "first lady" of interior decorating. The exhibit will be designed and installed by her protege, Tony Duquette, in the distinctive style of Villa Trianon, her famous home in Versailles, and will include rarely-seen paintings and furniture from the home. There will also be a lecture series and guided tours. The show takes place in Pier 3 from October 29 through November 1. For prices, times, and other information, see the listing inside under October 29, or call 921-1411.

The Fall Antiques Show

75th Birthday Celebration—Dick Wichman, Director Emeritus, Donaldina Cameron House, is being honored with a celebration of his birthday in Fort Mason's Pier 2 on Saturday, October 24 from 6pm to midnight. Proceeds will benefit Cameron House, the organization to which he has devoted forty years of service. A vital part of San Francisco's Chinatown community for 114 years, Cameron House provides club activities, leadership training, recreation and fellowship for youngsters and teenagers, counseling and support for new Asian immigrants, and a gathering place for adults committed to the neighborhood. This year is also the 40th anniversary of the youth programs that started when DickWichman began his ministry at Cameron House. The celebration is open to the public, and includes appetizers, a buffet service, no-host bar, presentations, entertainment, and dancing to music by Jest Jammin'. Tickets are $40 per person, $75 for two, $375 for an alumni table of ten, and $750 for a corporate sponsor table of ten. For information, call 781-0401 (days) or 681-9157 (evenings).
